THE CHINA MAIL.

HONGKONG, WEDNESDAY, FEB. 3, 1869. A RUMOUR is in circulation amongst the Chinese of the Colony that H. M. Consulate at Foochow has been attacked and looted, and that the Janus has in consequence seized the local magistrate and holds him as a hostage for satisfaction. We give the report for what it may be worth, but it is very certain that the native classes in the South are convinced that a rupture almost as serious as that customs is embodied. It is, however, not with these portions of the "Charge" that we are peculiarly interested. Bishop Alford has afforded us matter for reflection and comment in the section devoted more peculiarly to Hongkong, and to it.

we naturally turn with extreme interest.

For the first time within the memory of a majority of the residents in this Colony has a dignitary of the Church wielded the pen and tongue of a Censor as to the Government and condition of Hongkong. His first remarks are naturally devoted to the provision made for the naval and military forces, and of the large number of merchant seamen fre-quenting this port. His sketch of the duties of a Colonial Chaplain is calculated to somewhat upset the popular idea, that billet." Thushe is stated to be responsible for one or more Sunday Services at the Cathedral, and for a Sunday Service at the Sailors' Home; the performance of Marriages, Baptisms and Funerals; the visitation of the Gaol prisoners (English) and performance of a weekly service; for the same at the Civil Hospital; the visitation of the sick amongst the residents of the Colony; the spiritual care of the Scamen's Hospital and that of the crews of merchant vessels in harbour,

This is surely enough to more than occupy any conscientions man, and we agree with the Bishop's opinion that such is the case. He points out that the assistance rendered him is voluntary, and suggests that a stipend for the Deacon at Swatow has taken place at Foochow. THE BISHOP'S CHARGE, THE Charge of the Lord Bishop of Victoria, yesterday delivered at St. John's Cathedral, is of so exhaustive a nature that it is impossible to do more than allude to most of the many details with which it abounds. When we say that it extends over sixty-five pages of postour proposed mod to do more than h believe that many subjects must be the general end of touched on, each in itself sufficient as the tion. Purely secular education is almost invariably opposed by those who believe that religious teaching is a necesreligion-teaching system of our Government schools. But is not his Lordship rather hasty in his conclusions? He draws a comparison between the time ed : and because it was used as a class book he opines that the schools then "promised " better in a moral point of view. But there must be one head, and the "hand-in-hand" system would denominational schools, conducted as their supporters see fit, provided they submitted to a uniform code as regards secular education and to periodical visits and examinations by the Government inspector. But with St. Paul's School before us, we cannot say that either the system advocated by Bishop Alford, or Ali's store there. A coolie who makes his our proposed modification of it is likely living by purchasing packing leaves which to do more than help in a small way to come with the opium, was seen prowling A correspondent furnishes us with the the general end of juvenile native education. There is one plan which we should readily approve. Make the education at a government school of every Chinese compulsory—the religious teaching being voluntary as regards its reception the scholars. This would cut the knot at once; is short, easy and effective, would pay expenses and educate the natives. We make the Government present of the suggestion, simply observing that it is done elsewhere.

Space forbids us to notice, on this occasion, Bishop Alford's remarks on the Gambling and Brothel Ordinances. We shall however return to the subject of his Charge in connection with those subjects,

*THE INVESTITURE OF THE VICEROY OF EGYPT WITH THE STAR OF INDIA.

L'Egypte of the 26th Nov., gives an account of the investiture of the Vicerov with the order of the Star of India :-

The investiture by Lord Napier of Magtala of His Highness the Viceroy with the stowaways to perish on an ice field, the order of the Star of India took place in the | Spectator observes-25th at the palace of the Abassich. Colonel Stanton read the warrant empowering | ties so often reported in the Merchant Ser-Lord Napier to invest His Highness with the order, and Colonel Dillon, C.B., Mili-Knight Grand Commander of the most exalted order of the Star of India.

Lord Napier then said-Your Highness,-Phra Mongkut, Supreme King of Siam Her Most Gracious Majesty, Victoria, invest your Highness with the Grand Cross of the East, who have, by their faithful attachment to Her Majesty, and for such distinguished statesmen and soldiers as have services to hor Indian Empire. It is Her Majesty's desire that, in conveying to your ighness this mark of her favour. I shall Majesty's regard for your Highness, and the sonse which Her Majesty entertains of the friendship displayed by your Highness towards her Majesty's forces engaged in the late expedition in Abyssinia, especially in placing freely at the disposal of Her Majosty's Agent and Consul General, Colonel Stanton, the resources of Egypt in atores and transport. His Highness the Vicorov made a reply in French, of which the following is a translation:- I am extremely touched by the new mark of consideration and friendshi which Her Majesty the Queen of Great Britain shows towards me in conferring up on me the Grand Cross of the Star of India-a high distinction reserved for the princes of the royal blood and for those civil and military officers who have signalized themselves by eminent services in India. In favouring with all my power the passage of the English troops through Egypt on their way to Abyssinia, I have been glad to seize this occasion of giving t the English nation a new proof of my friendship and sympathy. We have nearly succheded in that object in the Navy, and though we have there the advantage that the officers are gentlemen, and the Courts omit nothing which can serve to show her | can more universally trust their ceremony we might, we believe, apply the same system in the Merchant Service. In the single case of violent mutiny there is no help,the officers must be left practically free. subject to subsequent inquiry into the causes which provoked the rising. But it is not necessary to ordinary discipline that a blow should ever be struck with out a written sentence, with the reasons, signed by at least three persons, -the captain, his mate, and one other. It is not necessary that punishment other than arrest'should be inflicted on offenders without twenty-four hours' delay. It is not nocessary that any "oruel or unusual" punishment, like that of keeping a lad unked on deck in Arctic cold, should ever he resorted to. And above all, -though here we know we shall part company with very kindly officers .- it is not necessary that the crew should be entirely unprovided with any means of remonstrating against an order visibly involving human life. It is inconceivable, -- indeed, the idea is disproved by the evidence in court, -that the crew of the Arran were insensible to the cruelty being enacted on the Newfoundland coast, or that they would not, if left free, have remonstrated. It is, we fear, greatly fear, cruel as the sentence may seem, impossible to invest the crew with any right of resistance, even in a case so extreme as this; the utinost we can do is to. leave such resistance to the judgment of a jury; but a recorded remonstrance would be an evidence against him such as no sane officer would like to face. The main point, however, the secret of all just discipline, however severe, -and discipline at sea has for its first object prompt and unquestioning abedience, -is, that no punishment shall be inflicted, however great or however slight, except judically, to enforce order, and with a record. We know all that will be urged about the ruffianism, and lawlessness, and viciousness of a particular class of sailor, and admit to the full that half the talk about the "docility and childlikeness of jack Tar," is poetry, or falsehood; but there never was a crew yet which could not be kept in order by the steady exercise been in lospital for some days, and has held. Kilung, April 2, 1868. HOLLOWAY'S PILLS & OINTMENT.

HOLLOWAY'S PILLS. HIS Medicine is universally admitted to be the most efficacious remedy known to the world. No preparation is so suitable to the climates of India and China as this fine and invigorating medicine. It is particularly adapted to the constitution of European ladies, as it is never failing in its effects in all diseases peculiar to females, while those who are attenuated by the debilitating effects of the above climates will find in this wonderful remedy a kind of talisman whereby they may insure a restoration to robust health.

HOLLOWAY'S OINTMENT. The science of Medicine has never before produced any remedy that can be compared to this wonderful Ointment, as it cares after all other means have failed, all wounds, sores, ulcers, and also the most inveterate skin diseases peculiar to the climates of India and China. It is the true friend of the Soldier and Civilian, as certain old sores can be removed by it that cannot be conquered by any other treat-
